

English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL)

Part-time courses - City of Oxford College

Fee for 2021/22
£260*

Summary

Our English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) courses are for people whose first language is not English. ESOL courses can help you live and work in UK.

You will study speaking and listening, reading and writing, grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation. The courses include lots of practice with the teacher and classmates. You can study in the day time or evening.

What do I learn?

The course will help you with:

- » Talking to doctors, teachers or shop assistants
- » Applying for jobs
- » Filling in forms
- » Helping your children with their homework
- » Making telephone calls
- » Taking part in conversations

How do I learn?

Teaching can include:

- » instruction from a teacher
- » group discussion
- » working in pairs
- » role plays

Also, you will be helped to develop your English skills according to your own needs. You will learn through reading, writing, listening and speaking in authentic situations.

What will I achieve?

Depending upon your level, you will gain a City & Guilds qualification in speaking and listening, reading or writing.

Please note: these are NOT international exams and are not recognised in other countries.

The teaching staff will let you know when you can take these exams. The cost for these tests is included in the course fee

Assessment/Enrolment

- » All prospective students must have an initial assessment before being admitted onto the course.
- » You will be asked to prove your residency status before you enrol. Please bring along your passport, EU ID card or Visa (if you entered the UK from outside the EU). If you entered the UK to join a spouse or relative, you will also need to bring along your spouse's/relative's passport.
- » Please bring along any proof of any benefits, such as JSA or ESA, if relevant to you.

What can I do next?

When you finish the course, you could:

- » study at the next level of ESOL
- » OR, study another subject at college
